Not So Fast

"...When we take our time, slow down, and linger – when we punctuate our day with a prayer - we settle into the reality that our lives are in His hands.

Our Lord deserves faithful one-on-one time. He won't demand it; it's our choice. But during times set apart from our hectic activities, we can really pour out our hearts to Him as He listens to every joy and pain (Ps. 62:8); then we in turn take time to listen to Him as He speaks through His Word, answering prayer, granting wisdom, expecting obedience.

If we can't slow down to develop that relationship with the living God who invites us to something deeper and richer, we're going too fast. If we don't bother to pray, worship, give thanks, or stand in hushed awe at something He has created or done, we're going too fast."

- A. Kroeker

"Be still and know that I am God." - Psalm

DON'T FORGET TO SILENCE YOUR PHONE DURING WORSHIP

LORD, HEAR OUR PRAYER...

Tracy Ehlmann

was released from the hospital on Wednesday. She and Brelynna will be staying with Allen and Sharon for a time as she recovers. Cards can still be sent to:

Kim Vogelsang

will have surgery on Jan 20th to fix the herniated disc in her neck. Recovery time will be six weeks. Cards can be sent to Kim at:

Kay Shepard

She went to the doctor again last week and he was able to diagnose her skin problem and prescribe some medicine to help. She wants her Foristell family to know that she looks forward to being with us again as soon as she is able. She would appreciate cards. Kay's address is:

Janet Colvett (Sherra's step-mom)

received some unwanted news this week. Janet was terminated from her job. Pray for Jimmy and Janet as they bear up under this trial combined with her struggles with her cancer and chemo treatments. Janet and

Jimmy can receive cards at:

Megan Oliver (her family used to attend here - student at Harding)

She was in a car accident and sustained severe injuries to her mouth and face that will require reconstructive surgery. Keep her in your prayers.

Mary Beth Dietz (Cindy Baker's mom)

will be having a consultation with an Eye Specialist on January 24th to see if they can do anything to help her vision problems. Cards can be sent to Mary Beth at:

Sharon Cassidy (a friend of Elaine's)

is recovering from two operations and a medical procedure. Sharon is also a member at O'Fallon.

Jean Dodd (Kim Vogelsang's step-mom)

had a stroke and she is trying to regain her strength. Encouragement cards can be sent to:
