Wisdom from Proverbs chapter 8

"Does not wisdom cry out, and understanding lift up her voice?

She cries out by the gates, at the entry of the city, at the entrance of the doors:

"To you, O men, I call, and my voice is to the sons of men.

"Listen, for I will speak of excellent things, and from the opening of my lips will come right things;

"The Lord possessed me at the beginning of His way, before His works of old.

I have been established from everlasting, from the beginning, before there was ever an earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no fountains abounding with water.

Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I was brought forth;

While as yet He had not made the earth or the fields, or the primal dust of the world.

When He prepared the heavens, I was there, when He drew a circle on the face of the deep,

When He established the clouds above, when He strengthened the fountains of the deep,

When He assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters would not transgress His command,

When He marked out the foundations of the earth,

Then I was beside Him as a master craftsman; and I was daily His delight,

Rejoicing always before Him, rejoicing in His inhabited world,

And my delight was with the sons of men.

"Now therefore, listen to me, my children, for blessed are those who keep my ways.

Hear instruction and be wise, and do not disdain it.

Blessed is the man who listens to me, watching daily at my gates,

Waiting at the posts of my doors. for whoever finds me finds life,

And obtains favor from the Lord."

"Father, there are so many things that could be done today and a limited amount of time. Help me to do the most important things in an excellent way and willingly leave the others undone. Give me the wisdom and courage to choose and refuse. Give me the confidence and compassion to face the consequences and the grace to enjoy the benefits."
